

Lil' Blessings Consignment Sale Consignor Agreement

- I understand that a $5.00 consignor fee will be deducted from my total profits, and I will receive a maximum of 70% of the selling price of each of my items sold. My check will be mailed to me within 10 days of the completion of the sale. I have verified that the address on file with Lil' Blessings is correct. Should I need my check replaced for any reason, Lil' Blessings will deduct the stop payment bank fees and reissue the remaining balance.
- I understand that Lil' Blessings reserves the right to deny acceptance or not guarantee any item for any reason, including but not limited to: excessive wear, stains/tears, out of season clothing, clothing that smells sour or like smoke and/or incorrect tagging/hanging.
- I understand that I must have 10 accepted items to be eligible to shop as a consignor at the Pre-Sale.
- I understand that the items will be sold and donated as I have specified when entering them in the Lil' Blessings website and as they are printed on the tags. When I sign the item list at check-in (or express consent form), I am agreeing that the price, half and donate are set correctly on the list and the item tags.
- I understand that I must schedule a drop-off appointment in order to bring my items to Lil' Blessings. If I do not Express Check-in, after Lil' Blessings inventories my items, I will be responsible for placing the items in the proper locations on the sales floor. If I choose to Express check in, Lil' Blessings will not inventory my items and will not be responsible for compensation of lost or missing items at item pick up.
- I understand that if an item does not show in our system as sold, was not set by the consignor to be donated and is missing at the end of the sale, I can receive up to 70% of the price (or 70% of half, if marked to go half). However, Lil' Blessings reserves the right to adjust payout amount based on the average used online sales price of similar items.
- I understand that if my unsold items are not picked up by 3 PM on Sunday, after the sale, they WILL BE DONATED. There will be NO exceptions.
- Lil' Blessings Children's Consignment Sale is not liable for any damage to my items beyond their control, such as fire, tornado, flood, theft, etc. I understand that Lil' Blessings makes every effort to protect all items.
- I understand that I am the seller of my items. As the consignor, I am responsible for checking to see that none of my items are subject to recall; it is not Lil' Blessings' responsibility to check the recall status of items. <http://www.cpsc.gov> is a website that lists infant/children's items that have been recalled.
